

Lodge Facts & Rates

Location

The ever-changing Waikato River and broader Lake Taupō region provide a magnificent natural setting for Huka Lodge. Taupō is found on the central plateau of New Zealand’s North Island, distinguished by its vast lake and endowed with a gentle climate, a leisurely pace and spectacular landscape. Formed from an ancient volcanic caldera, Lake Taupō’s vast waters spill into the thundering Huka Falls. Snow-capped mountain peaks, rolling pastures of golden grasses, lush green wilderness and the clear waters of lakes, rivers and streams offer a calming and rewarding vista from every turn.

Getting there

Huka Lodge is located in Taupō, in the central North Island of New Zealand. Auckland is the gateway for international travellers, with flights arriving into Auckland several times a day.

The Auckland Airport domestic terminal is a short 10-minute walk from the international terminal and Air New Zealand offers two daily scheduled flights to Taupō. Huka Lodge provides complimentary return transfers to and from Taupō Airport, a leisurely 15-minute drive.

Climate

New Zealand’s North Island seasons are distinct, offering a new set of experiences in each season with a marked maritime influence. During the summer months, average daytime temperatures range from 14°C-32°C. In autumn, golden landscapes welcome temperatures from 8-15°C during the day. Winter in Taupō brings temperatures during daylight hours between 6-12°C, perfect for skiing followed by cosy nights warmed by an open fire. The crisp, blue-skied days of spring bring daytime temperatures of 10-15°C.

Season	Average daytime temp	Average overnight temp
Summer (December-February)	14-32°C (57-90°F)	9-11°C (48-53°F)
Autumn (March-May)	8-15°C (46-59°F)	5-9°C (41-48°F)
Winter (June-August)	6-12°C (42-53°F)	3-4°C (37-39°F)
Spring (September-November)	10-15°C (50-59°F)	4-9°C (39-48°F)

What to bring

Reflecting the country retreat style of the lodge, dress is smart casual at Huka Lodge. Evening attire is elegant, however, ties, jackets and dinner suits are not required. Solid walking shoes, comfortable casual clothes, layers of warmer clothes and an outdoor jacket if travelling in the cooler months are all recommended. Also consider packing golf shoes, a swimsuit and other recreational clothing for active pursuits. A hat, sunglasses and sunscreen are summer essentials.

Stay

Accommodation

Twenty Junior Lodge Suites along with two exclusive owners' residences, the Alan Pye Cottage and Alex van Heeren Cottage, are dotted along the banks of the Waikato River and among verdant gardens, each opening onto rolling green lawns and with the sounds of birdsong and the burbling river as nature's orchestral score. Interiors are elegant and calming offering unparalleled comfort and luxury to perfectly complement the extraordinary natural surrounds. All suites feature king beds, wireless internet, climate control, safe and select mini bar. Light-filled bathrooms offer decadently deep bathtubs and luxurious heated floors with adjacent generous dressing rooms. Bathrobes, slippers, hairdryer are provided along with daily housekeeping and evening turndown service.

Check-in / Check-out

Check-in time is 2pm and check-out time is 11am. Where possible, flexibility with early check-in and late check-out will be provided, however, these are unable to be guaranteed.

Children

Children are warmly welcome.

Junior Lodge Suite

True retreats in every sense, the Junior Lodge Suites each open on to the Waikato River and are designed to offer personalised luxury and a harmonious flow with the spectacular natural landscape outside. The open-plan bedroom and lounge area offers king or twin beds dressed in fine monogrammed linens and plump feather pillows. Lounge chairs and a writing desk offers another perspective for drinking in the view. A light and spacious bathroom offers every indulgence including deep bath, separate shower, heated floors and twin basins. Adjacent, a generous dressing room makes it truly easy to feel at home.

Lodge

Dining

Dining at Huka Lodge is at the heart of the tradition of generous hospitality for which the lodge is world-renowned. Showcasing New Zealand's finest, often sustainably produced ingredients and complemented by a magnificent selection of wine, the menus at Huka Lodge are daily changing and reflect the seasons and the environment outdoors. Dining can be enjoyed in the sumptuous surrounds of the main lodge or taken in one of more than twenty dining venues dotted around the property, from the Wine Cellar to the Orchard or Jetty Pavilion.

What's included

- Full country breakfast
- 5-course dinner with daily changing menu
- Pre dinner drinks and canapés

Cuisine

For nearly a century, the kitchen at Huka Lodge has delighted guests who first came to catch trout in the luminescent blue-green Waikato River. Guests now come from around the world to experience the culinary legacy led by Chef Paul Froggatt. With his classical European training, the UK-born connoisseur brings a refreshing blend of tradition and locally produced organic, free-range, natural ingredients to its daily-changing menus. Paul chooses to work with premium New Zealand producers who share the Huka Lodge commitment to sustainability.

Services

Reception and boutique, wireless internet, daily laundry and dry cleaning service (charges apply). All major credit cards are accepted at Huka Lodge.

Experience

A stay in the spectacular parklike surrounds of Huka Lodge at Taupō, places guests at the doorstep to a host of wonderful experiences of the destination, from the traditional fly-fishing on the banks of the Waikato River to hiking, luxury cruising, golfing and more. Of course, the luxurious setting at Huka Lodge invites leisurely pursuits onsite, including tennis, pétanque and croquet, while the option to read a book on the riverbank, indulge in a spa treatment or enjoy a drink on the terrace are equally appealing.

Aquatic adventures

At 616-square kilometres, Lake Taupō has a land mass equivalent of Singapore. The waterway is New Zealand’s most popular trout fishing location and most activity on the lake takes the form of trolling using either lures or flies, with the catch averaging around four pounds. For those with a taste for adventure, a jet boat trip on the Waikato River combines thrilling action with the chance to see spectacular natural features like the Huka Falls up close while an exhilarating white water rafting trip on the Tongariro River is an adventurer's must-do.

Additional charges apply
Aquatic, land and helicopter tours are provided by specialist local operators and additional charges apply. View more details on our website.

Land expeditions

Nothing brings you closer to Taupō’s unforgettable wilderness than walking through it, and Taupō has some of the best walking tracks in New Zealand. Golfers have a choice of two world-class courses – a favourite being Wairakei International Golf Course just five-minutes away. Also popular is a half or full day tour with a descendant of our local Māori tribe, Ngāti Tūwharetoa – a tribe that is steeped in tradition and history.

Heli experiences

Taupō offers unforgettable helicopter tours, showcasing powerful volcanoes, thermal reserves, tranquil wilderness areas, sparkling rivers and pristine coastlines – not to mention the region’s star natural attractions - Huka Falls and Lake Taupō. The ultimate and ‘must do’ experience while staying at Huka Lodge, has to be a combination of a scenic helicopter flight over the magnificent Kaimanawa Ranges, the World Heritage site of Tongariro National Park and a scenic boat cruise on New Zealand’s largest lake. Subject to availability.

Lodge activities

Huka Lodge nestles within 17-acres of manicured grounds and offers a location of great natural beauty. There is an all-weather tennis court as well as potential to play pétanque and croquet within the grounds. Guests can try their hand at the traditional pastime of fly fishing and cast a line from the lawn to fish for trout on a catch-and-release basis. A range of beauty and massage treatments offers the chance to unwind in-suite and a private yoga session and tennis tuition can also be arranged. A swimming pool and spa pools are available for the enjoyment of all guests. Mountain bikes are also offered for those wishing to explore on two wheels.

Please note
Lawn activities are included.
Additional charges apply for spa treatments, private yoga and tennis tuition.

Policies

Payment & Cancellation Policy

Full prepayment is required one month prior to arrival. We accept Visa, MasterCard or American Express or direct deposit. Additional conditions apply to groups of five or more suites; package rates may not apply. As a small boutique property our business depends on maximising occupancy, cancellations often result in empty rooms due to booking lead times and limited air capacity. Bookings may be cancelled prior to one month from arrival without forfeiture. For cancellations within one month of arrival all monies will be forfeited. No refund can be given in the event of non-arrival, any unused services or unused nights due to flight and/or weather disruption. We recommend you protect your plans with travel insurance. Rates are subject to change without notice.
